

The Visiting Graduate Student Application allows degree-seeking graduate students to enroll in graduate level courses at other UM System campuses as non degree-seeking graduate students. No application fee is required. This application form should be:

- 1. completed by the student
- 2. approved by the home campus Graduate School
- 3. transmitted to the host Graduate School by the home campus at least two weeks prior to the start of the semester.

See Important Student Information on page two of this form for more details.

Financial aid may be available; students must contact the home campus student financial aid office about a consortium agreement. Tuition/fee waivers generally do not transfer to the host campus. Visiting students are subject to all registration regulations at the host campus and are not eligible to register as degree-seeking students on the host campus. Courses taken as a Visiting UM Graduate Student are subject to the transfer and residency policies of the home institution.

International (non-citizen) students should consult the International Center at the home campus to determine eligibility, before completing this application.

To be approved for UM System Visiting Graduate Student status, a student must:

- Be enrolled as a degree-seeking graduate student at the home campus;
- Be in good standing at the home campus as well as the visiting campus.

Important Student Information:

- 1. Student's home campus determines transferability and the maximum number of transfer hours allowed for courses taken as a UM Visiting Graduate student.
- 2. To officially transfer courses from the host campus to the home campus, students must order an official transcript from the host campus and comply with the home campus's transfer policies and processes.
- 3. Student's home campus determines all enrollment requirements for eligibility. Forms not submitted at least two weeks prior to the start of the semester may result in a delay to register for the course(s) for that semester.
- 4. Consortium agreements allow students to use home campus financial aid at other approved campuses. Consult your home campus student financial aid office for more detials.
- 5. Tuition and fee waivers generally do not transfer from the home campus to the host campus. Consult your home campus for details.
